

GIVEN THE COLLAPSE OF SO MUCH OF WHAT WE LOVE - HOW SHOULD WE LIVE?.

Re-seating ourselves into the stream of consciousness we call LIFE gives our life meaning and peace of mind. Learning to dance with Her changes, instead of resisting or trying to stop them, will allow us to create the path to a new and different world, as we walk. There is no predicting, no foresight that can tell us what is coming, but we can gain the skills needed to listen to the Earth and partner with her going forward. This is the work I'm inviting you into. We can build a new world – together.

Community Minister - for LIFE

THE SEVENTH PRINCIPLE MUST BE FIRST

THE MAJOR “LITTLE” SHIFT WE NEED TO MAKE IS FROM HUMAN CENTERED TO LIFE CENTERED. IF THE PLANET LIVES, WE ALL LIVE, IT DOESN'T WORK THE OTHER WAY.

WHAT WORKING WITH A COMMUNITY MINISTER OFFERS

My ministry, as a focus on Earth Connection, can help both the congregation and the community live our Seventh Principle. As an affiliate lay Community Minister, I partner with the senior minister and board, through covenant, to deepen the congregations experience with the seventh Principle.

If the mission of your church includes a vision of a healthy and vibrant world, then I believe that the wisdom Mother Nature has developed over the past 3.4 billion years in how to keep life thriving, might be useful. The blending of science, indigenous wisdom from people like Robin Wall Kimmerer, and our understanding of Earth herself, is both euphoric and practical. The shift from separation to connection is such a tiny reframing, yet it makes such a vast difference. I'm seeking to take this journey with you!

SERMONS - TALKS

I'm available, online or in person, for Sunday sermons and homilies. I'm happy to do one-offs or to schedule a series. Earth Values provide a context for LIFE centric choices. Sample sermon topics:

*How should We Live?

- Climate Change is an Inside Job
- Taking Care
- Listening to the Earth
- Change the Dream: How visioning create our world

COACHING - CONSULTING

I offer individual, group and organizational coaching. Organizations may also need consulting to shift culture and processes.

WORKSHOPS - SEMINARS

Workshops can be tied to sermons, or not. I have standard workshops on the Value Systems, Systems thinking, and the connections between indigenous wisdom and science. Customized workshops and seminars can easily be developed for specific needs and situations with these as foundations.
